

Je-Young Park, M.D. (South Korea)

Dermatologist

Dr. Je-Young Park is a board-certified dermatologist. He received his M.D. from Seoul National University's College of Medicine, Seoul, South Korea. He completed his residency at Seoul National University Medical Center in 2004. Presently he is the Chief Director of Oracle Dermatology & Plastic Surgery Center in Apgujeong, Korea. As one of the key doctors of a leading opinion group in dermatology in Korea, he has lectured extensively abroad on cosmetic procedures especially injectables and lifting. Dr. Park is an chief general affair director of Korean Anti-Aging Dermatology Association (KAAD). He is also an international Fellow of American Academy of Dermatology (AAD), and a corresponding fellow of American Society for Dermatologic Surgery (ASDS), and a member of American Society for Laser Medicine and Surgery (ASLMS).