PHAM Thi Thanh Giang, MD, Dermatologist

DERMOGRAPHIC AND PERSONAL INFORMATION

I have been working in cosmetic dermatology for over ten years. After graduating from Pham Ngoc Thach medical school in Ho Chi Minh City in 2004, I worked in dermatology clinic for foreigner. In 2012, I attended post graduated in dermatology. From 2012 until now, I work for Ho Chi Minh City Hospital of Dermato and Venereology. As a doctor in Cosmetic Department, I specially interested in the treatment of pigmented lesions and acne scars. I also have experience in rejuvenating skin by Botulinum Toxin and HA injection. I have been Speaker and lecturer for over 40 conferences and training courses about cosmetic dermatology in Ho Chi Minh city and Hanoi from 2016. I was also a speaker for third and fourth Indochina conference of dermatology, Laos and Asia Derma- Singapore in 2019. During Covid 19 Pandemic, I had delivered lecture online for KOREADERMA 2020 and CyASIA 2021.
