

Saleem Loghdey, MBChB FACD

Biography

Saleem Loghdey is a Board-Certified Dermatologist originally from Cape Town. He got his medical degree at the University of Cape Town qualifying in 1995 and then completed his Dermatology residency at the University of Stellenbosch, Cape Town in 1999 becoming a Fellow of the College of Dermatologists of South Africa in 2003.

Dr Loghdey relocated to the United Kingdom in 2004 and was admitted to the UK Dermatologist Specialist Register in 2005. He has dual fellowship training in Mohs Micrographic Surgery and Laser Surgery . He has a special interest in treating cutaneous sarcomas with Mohs surgery.

After moving to Australia, Dr Loghdey became a Fellow of the Australasian College of Dermatologists in 2014.

Dr Loghdey employs a range of laser and energy based device technology to provide his patients with a holistic treatment approach. He has special interests in cutaneous laser surgery, dermatopathology, paediatric dermatology, collagen vascular disease, and cosmetic dermatology.