

In this session we will be discussing about the long-term treatment in acne management including the latest updates on new topical and oral agents. We will also be discussing about what's new with isotretinoin and practical tips on how to use in our daily practice. Finally I'll talk about the latest devices approved for the treatment of acne.