

Talk #3: Use of exosomes in combination with energy-based devices for maximizing results and minimizing downtime

In this session, we will discuss the use of exosomes combined with energy based devices to maximize the patient experience. Exosomes can be applied immediately post treatment following non-ablative and ablative lasers to decrease the downtime and symptoms , including decreased erythema and swelling.